

Privacy Policy

Noteable is committed to protecting your privacy while interacting with our content, products and services. We want to provide a safe and secure environment for our customers.

Collection of information

Information is collected from you primarily to make it easier for you to use our services. Depending on the service you are accessing, you could be asked to provide information such as your name, email address. Noteable collects two types of information. The first type is anonymous information. For instance, we may collect information to tell us that 100 people visit this Privacy Policy today, but we do not know their names, where they live or their date of birth - they are anonymous to us. The second type of information that we collect is personal information. Noteable will collect personal information that lets us know the specifics of who you are such as your name, email address, or postal address, when you provide it to us. Certain information may be required, such as your name, internet address, billing address, credit card number, in order to provide the service or product to you. This information may also be used to inform you of additional products and services which may interest you.

Use of personal information

Noteable will only use your personal information for the purpose for which you provided it. For example to post your items, to check and follow up on orders, or to inform you of future items. We will not use it for any other purpose without your consent. Under no circumstances will Noteable sell or pass on any of a clients personal information without your specific consent.

Security

Noteable operates secure data networks that are designed to protect your privacy and security. Any credit card details that are dealt with personally (for example numbers given over the phone or through fax) will be shredded as soon as the intended payment has gone through.

Customers have the options of payment either the ANZ payment gateway, SSL or paypal.

Complaints about privacy

If you have any complaints relating to online privacy issues on our websites, please Noteable as soon as possible. We will investigate all complaints.
